Upcoming Events:

Art Gallery - In the Art Gallery starting Wednesday February 1st, James Donnelly will be presenting an exhibition of his Summer of Arctic Foxes photographs.
Blind Date with a Book - Discover something new when you pick and unwrap one of our specially chosen picks for your reading pleasure! This annual event will run for the month of February.
Name the Puppy - We are still looking for a name for our giant stuffed puppy dog. We will randomly be drawing a selection from our "dog bowl" at 4 pm on Valentine's Day.
Canada's Flag Day - Wednesday, February 15th. Look for your commemorative activity kit and wear red + white to mark this celebration.
Music & Memory Activity Kits - We will be promoting these kits during the last two weeks of this month. Discover your old favorites from our CD collections.
Puzzle Swap - At all branches! Drop into your local branch to swap your gently used puzzle for another. No library card required!

A Snow Day Reminder
When school buses are cancelled, our in-person programs are too. See our social media pages for more snow day details.

Library Chronicles

February 2023

Message from the CEO:

This month the Stayner Branch is hosting wildlife photographer @jimmying.fox for his exhibition, Fox Photography From Near and Far. This artist recently returned from an expedition to an uninhabited region of the Westfjords in Iceland. Come and step into the only native Icelandic mammal's habitat, as well as photosof local urban foxes. All prints are available for sale.
